

PROBANK AUSTIN IN CONJUNCTION WITH COMMUNITY BANKERS ASSOCIATION
OF OKLAHOMA IS PLEASED TO OFFER

2017 Community Reinvestment Act Compliance for Community Banks:

Assessing CRA Performance in the Current Regulatory Environment

What You Will Learn

This program is designed for compliance professionals and supervisors, as well as those new to CRA. The underlying purpose and background of CRA helps to put compliance and regulatory issues in perspective for those responsible for CRA programs. Also covered are technical rules for small, intermediate and large banks, and factors taken into account by examiners in assessing CRA performance. The potential repercussions related to consequences of a "needs-to-improve" or "substantial noncompliance" rating are addressed in practical terms.

The program covers CRA challenges faced by small, intermediate small, and large banks. Examination preparation is emphasized, along with best practices for risk management. Community development, the lending, investment and services tests and peer comparisons are covered, as well as the necessity of taking a proactive approach to performance context, community outreach gap analysis and needs assessments.

Who Should Attend

This program is suitable for CRA, community development and compliance officers, community development and multi-family housing lenders, loan administration personnel, and auditors. Program content is presented in realistic, practical terms. The interrelationship with lending discrimination and HMDA reporting is also addressed.

What Attendee's Are Saying

"The most valuable part of the program were the handouts and the knowledge level of the speaker. She was well rounded and knew where we as attendees were coming from. It was not just book knowledge with her."

Seminar Speakers

Mary Neil Price is a Senior Consultant and Vice President at ProBank Austin. Ms. Price received her B.A. degree from Newcomb College in 1982 and her J.D. from Tulane University Law School in 1985. She has practiced banking and transactional law for thirty years. Her experience includes representation of community, mid-sized, regional and money-center banks. In private practice her career has encompassed mergers and acquisitions of privately-held and publicly-traded companies, equity capital and debt transactions, credit and finance and regulatory compliance. As in-house, general counsel and corporate secretary of a regional multi-bank holding company, she oversaw legal, compliance and CRA operations, including corporate governance, benefits and executive compensation, and expansion into non-deposit products and services. As an adjunct professor at Belmont University School of Law, Ms. Price has taught Payments Systems (UCC Articles 3 and 4). She also serves as a director and chairman of the loan committee of Pathway Lending, a community development financial institution.
