

Advantage Health Plans Trust Welcomes Troy Stillwagon as Chief Information Officer.

June 12, 2019, Oklahoma City, OK – The Kempton Company, Administrator of Advantage Health Plans welcomes Troy Stillwagon as Chief Information Officer.

Mr. Stillwagon has more than 30 years of experience in healthcare information technology and business practices. With extensive knowledge about how to assist businesses in optimizing technology to improve efficiencies and business value, and an impressive IT and project management skill set, Mr. Stillwagon brings incredible value to Advantage Health Plans and the Kempton team.

In his previously held positions as the Vice President of Information Systems for Scott and White Health Plan, and Information Security Officer with Baylor Scott and White Healthcare, Mr. Stillwagon was instrumental in the improvement and enhancement of information security, telecommunications, solution management, and IT support.

Administrator Jay Kempton believes Mr. Stillwagon will be a remarkable asset to The Kempton Company, stating, “As the demands of the marketplace require technology to be more and more customer-centric, having an experienced Chief Information Officer is critical to our future success. More importantly, having the RIGHT person in this position was my goal. Troy is not only the most qualified, but he is also the right cultural fit for Kempton, believing that technology should always enhance the relationship with customers.”

Mr. Stillwagon has already hit the ground running, taking the lead on numerous technology expansion and security projects. He is excited to contribute towards the opportunity for growth and states, “I am humbled to be part of such a great team and to share in its rich history. I am also excited about the opportunities that stand before us, and I look forward to working with the team to enhance and transform our technology and our value to our clients.”

A graduate of the Tarleton State University, Mr. Stillwagon holds a BBA in Management of Information Systems.

We encourage you to reach out to Mr. Stillwagon to extend your congratulations and learn more about his new role with The Kempton Company and Advantage Health Plans Trust.
